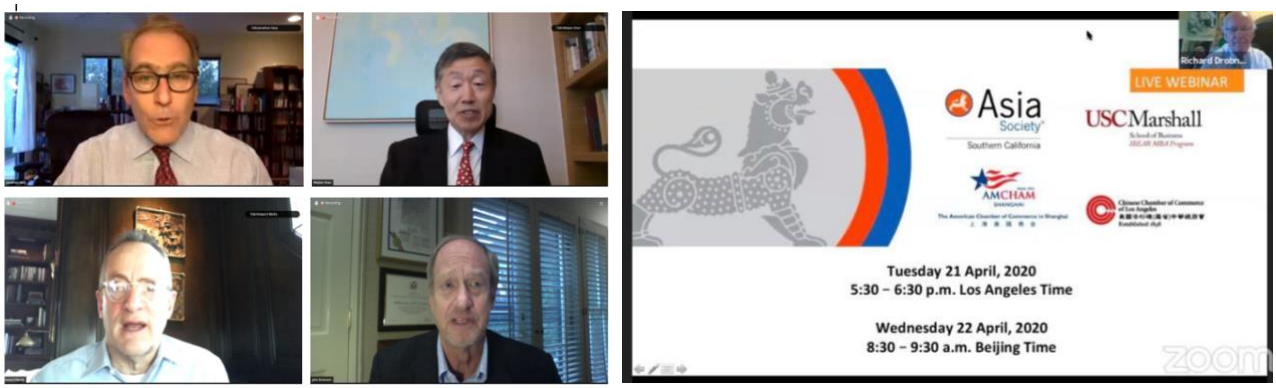
PhilConGen LA Joins Webinar on COVID-19: Global Economic Fallout



Clockwise: Moderator Jonathan Karp and Members of the panel Weijian Shan, Howard Marks and John Emerson.

21 April 2020, Los Angeles – The Philippine Consulate General participated in a webinar entitled "COVID-19: Global Economic Fallout" held in the afternoon of 21 April 2020 and hosted by the Asia Society of Southern California.

Discussants were notable investment experts Howard Marks, Weijian Shan and John Emerson, who all shared their insights on the impact of the novel coronavirus pandemic on the global economy, as well as their forecast on the trajectory of the economic recovery of the United States, China and Europe.

American publisher and Asia Society Executive Director Jonathan Karp moderated the panel discussion.

Representing the Consulate General in the webinar were Political and Economic Officer Consul Rea G. Oreta and Information Officer Mary Grace Leaño, who joined about 550 other participants from 25 countries across four continents.

Established in 1956 by John D. Rockefeller III, the Asia Society is a non-profit organization that focuses on educating the world about Asia through arts, education, policy and business outreach. It holds offices in Asia, the United States, Australia and Europe. END.
