

PRESS RELEASE
MJBA-118-2009

6th ANNUAL PAGPAPAHALAGA SA KALUSUGAN NG PAMILYA HEALTH FAIR

Los Angeles, 21 October 2009 – The 6th Annual Pagpapahalaga sa Kalusugan ng Pamilya Health Fair was formally opened this morning at the Community Hall of the Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles, CA. This event is being undertaken by Asian Pacific Health Care Venture, Inc. (APHCV), to deliver free health screening services to the Filipino Community. The health fair will run on 21 and 22 October 2009 from 10:00 am until 4:00 pm and on 23 October 2009 from 10:00 am until 2:00 pm.

Services extended include blood pressure, and glucose screenings, BMI screening; osteoporosis scanning; oral health counseling; bone marrow registration; and, pre-screening for eligibility for public health care programs, among others.

Interested parties may contact Ms. Marilyn Johns, Pilipino Outreach Worker of APHCV, at telephone no. (323) 644-3880 ext. 229 or email: MJohns@aphcv.org.

Left Photo: Deputy Consul General Daniel R. Espiritu welcomes the participants to the opening of The 6th Annual Pagpapahalaga sa Kalusugan ng Pamilya Health Fair.

Right Photo: Ms. Marilyn John (left), Pilipino Outreach Worker of the Asian Pacific Health Care Venture, Inc. (APHCV) explains procedures to participants prior to the glucose screening, one of the services provided by APHCV during the health fair.
###end