

PRESS RELEASE
MJBA-130-2009

LAPCG HOSTS FIL-AM MEDIA CHRISTMAS PARTY

PHOTOS COURTESY OF ALBERT VARGAS, FRONTLINERS MEDIA GROUP

Los Angeles, 10 December 2009 – The Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles hosted a Christmas party for the members of the Filipino-American media on 8 December 2009. The party began with the celebration of a holy mass which was offered to honor all media practitioners for the work they are doing and to pray for the victims of the massacre in Maguindanao.

Singing, dancing and raffle prizes were drawn during the event to the delight of the guests. Prizes were provided by Consul General Aragon, VuQo, Goldilocks and Ms. Jannelle So.

In her remarks, Consul General Mary Jo Bernardo Aragon thanked the members of the media for all the help extended to the Consulate in its campaign to reach our kababayan under its consular jurisdiction which comprise Southern California, Southern Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

Left photo: Consul General Mary Jo Bernardo Aragon delivers her remarks during the event.

Right photo: Consul General Mary Jo Bernardo Aragon poses with some members of the Filipino-American media present during the party. ###end