RESULTS OF OAV BALLOT COUNT AT THE L.A. CONSULATE

Los Angeles, 13 May 2010 – Officials and staff of the Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles manually counted the 3,609 ballots received from Overseas Absentee Voters (OAV) from Southern California, Southern Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas. The counting of ballots, which began at 4:00 o'clock in the morning of Monday, 10 May 2010 (7 pm – Philippine time), concluded at 5:00 o'clock in the morning of Tuesday, 11 May 2010.

A total of seven (7) Special Board of Election Inspectors (SBEI) or precincts were constituted to accomplish the task of manually counting the ballots.

Photo above shows Consul General Mary Jo Bernardo Aragon, who is also the chairman of the SBEI #1, receives from Mr. Elias Balawag, Chairman, Special Board of Reception and Custody Group (SBRCG), two ballot boxes which contains more than 500 ballots and other counting paraphernalia prior to counting. Also in photo are Ms. Anna Liza Sarol-Salvador and Mr. Edmund Gidaya, both members of SBEI #1.
