ISLAND PACIFIC SUPERMARKET DONATES TO TYPHOON VICTIMS

Los Angeles, 13 January 2012 – Island Pacific Supermarket reported to the Philippine Consulate General that its fund drive for the victims of Typhoon Sendong collected a total of US$12,062.24.

The cash donation will be remitted directly by Island Pacific to the Philippine National Red Cross.
