

PHOTO RELEASE
ASC-051-2017

BUKLOD: A GATHERING OF FILIPINO AND FILIPINO-AMERICAN ART AT THE CROATIAN CULTURAL CENTER IN SAN PEDRO, CA

(L-R standing) Mr. Eliseo Art Silva, Consul General Adelio Angelito S. Cruz, (L seated) Ms. Malou Mariano, (2nd from L-R seated) Ms. Lyn Pacificar and Cultural Officer Wilma Bautista.

Los Angeles, 19 May 2017 – Consul General Adelio Angelito S. Cruz visited the exhibit “BUKLOD: A Gathering of Filipino and Filipino-American Arts and Artists” organized by FilAm ARTS in partnership with the Philippine Expressions Bookshop held at the Croatian Cultural Center in San Pedro, CA.

The exhibit was held from 04 to 11 May 2017, curated by Eliseo Art Silva, showcases works from Hana ACBD, Nicanor Evangelista, Jr. Lyn Pacificar, Diyan Bukobomba, Eliseo Art Silva and Champoy. It also features the exhibits “OBRA PINTURA: PinoyArtWork” curated by Edwin Ramoran and “Abueva & Saprid: Sculptures from Filipino Masters” from the collection of Ms. Linda Nietes-Little.

The Association for the advancement of Filipino American Arts and Culture, also known as FilAm ARTS, is a multi-disciplinary community arts organization whose mission is to advance the understanding of the arts and diverse cultural heritage of Filipinos in the United States through presentation, arts, services and education. END.

