PHL CONSULATE GENERAL JOINS 5th KALAYAAN PARADE AT HISTORIC FILIPINOTOWN, LA

Los Angeles, 08 June 2017 – The Philippine Consulate General joined the 5th Kalayaan Parade commemorating the 119th Anniversary of the Proclamation of Philippine Independence on 03 June 2017 held at the Historic Filipinotown, Los Angeles.

The 5th Kalayaan parade was organized by the Filipino American Community of Los Angeles (FACLA) and Justice for Filipino American Veterans. Established on 26 April 1945, FACLA is considered the oldest non-profit Filipino organization in Southern California. The Kalayaan 2017 Parade was participated in by various Fil-Am organizations ranging from civic to youth, business service and religious groups. After the Parade, a short program was held inside the FACLA compound with District 13 Councilmember Mitch O'Farrell as its guest speaker.
