CONSUL GENERAL CRUZ MEETS WITH MAYOR ISIDRO CABADDU CAMALANIUGAN, CAGAYAN VALLEY

(L-R) Cultural Officer Wilma Bautista, Juliet Costales Ibergas of Camalaniugan High School Alumni Association, Consul Dyan Pastrana, Mayor Isidro Cabaddu, Consul General Adelio Angelito Cruz, as well as Josie and Mark de Jesus of Camalaniugan Circle

Los Angeles, 03 August 2017 – Mayor Isidro Cabaddu of Camalaniugan, Cagayan Valley, together with officers of the Camalaniugan Circle USA, Inc. (CCUSA Inc) and the Camalanugan National High School Alumni Association International Inc. (CNHSAAI Inc) paid a courtesy call on Consul General Adelio Angelito Cruz on 31 July 2017.

Mayor Cabaddu attended the Joint Grand Reunion of CCUSA and CNHSAAI held on 22 July 2017 at the Hilton Glendale, California.

CCUSA and CNHSAAI are both non-profit 501(c)(3) Fil-Am organizations caring for fellow Camalaniugans all over the world, especially in the town of Camalaniugan, province of Cagayan Valley.

Mayor Cabaddu expressed his thanks to the Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles for its support to both organizations. He called for the continued friendship and partnership between the two institutions in upholding the welfare of Filipinos in the US and in the Philippines.

Consul General Cruz, in return, thanked the Mayor for coming to the Consulate General. He commended the members of both organizations for their noble tradition of celebrating their Filipino heritage and giving back to their hometown and alma mater. The Consul General noted the valuable programs the two organizations have done since their inceptions, like education, medical dental and health missions. “Such projects help underprivileged children grow up healthy and educated, empowering them to reach their full potential”, said Consul General Cruz.

Consul General Cruz also took the opportunity to ask the group to help in promoting the next year’s Ambassadors’ tour by which the Consulate General in Los Angeles will be the lead coordinator.
