Los Angeles, 19 December 2017 – The Philippine Consulate General in a simple ceremony commemorated the 154th birth anniversary of Philippine national hero Andres Bonifacio at the Community Hall on 02 December 2017.

Consul Ambrosio Brian F. Enciso III read an article, giving an account of the life of Andres Bonifacio and the critical and leading role he played in the Filipinos' struggle for independence from colonial rule. He reminded Filipinos to draw inspiration from the life and works of the hero, in being a true patriot and a man of the people. END.
