

PHOTO RELEASE
ASC-050-2018

PHL CONSULATE GENERAL PARTICIPATES IN THE ASEAN FEST 2018

Los Angeles, 22 June 2018 – The Philippine Consulate General, in cooperation with the Philippine Department of Tourism (PDOT) and Philippine Trade and Investment Center (PTIC) in Los Angeles participated in the 2nd ASEAN Fest 2018 held on 26 May 2018 at Puentes Hills Mall, City of Industry, California.

(L) Traditional ASEAN Handshake and (R) Ribbon Cutting Ceremony performed by Consuls General and Representatives of the ASEAN Members States Represented in California highlighting the 51st Anniversary celebration of the ASEAN Establishment.

The Philippine Delegation, headed by Consul Ambrosio Brian F. Enciso III (seated on the left side) with Mr. Nellsen Young (standing next to Consul Enciso), Founder & President of ASEAN-PAC at the Philippine booth.

FEATURED SPEAKERS DURING THE PROGRAM

(L) Mr. Nellsen Young delivers his Welcome Remarks; (R) Consul General Darryl Lau of The Consulate General of Singapore

(L) California Assembly Member Ed Chau; (R) U.S. House Member Judy Chu

Mr. Mike Eng, Former State Assemblyman and Candidate for State Senate

THE PHILIPPINE CULTURAL PRESENTATION BY KAYAMANAN NG LAHI PHILIPPINE FOLK ARTS:

Sayaw Sa Bangko (Dance on a Bench) from the province of Pangasinan.

Pasigin (Capiz). In the hands of skilled fishermen, a pasigin assures food for the Family.

Pandango Sa Ilaw (Dance of Lights) from Lubang, Mindoro

Tinikling (Bamboo dance), famous Philippine folk dance from Leyte, province of Visaya. based on the movements of the tikling bird.