LA PCG ATTENDS THE NCPACA 2018 CONVENTION GALA NIGHT

Los Angeles, 02 September 2018 – The Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles, represented by Consul Rea G. Oreta and Cultural Officer, Maria Dolores C. Sales, attended the 32nd Annual Convention of the National Council of Philippine American Canadian Accountants (NCPACA) Gala Night, which was held at the Anaheim Marriott on 02 September 2018.

Consul Oreta, on behalf of Consul General Adelio Angelito S. Cruz, extended the Consul General's heartfelt congratulations to the officers and members of the NCPACA for their three-day Annual Convention, which culminated with a Gala Night on 02 September 2018. She also commended the Philippine American Society of CPAs-LA Chapter (PASCPA-LA), led by its overall convention chair, Ms. Gloria Cajanap, for hosting this year's NCPACA's annual convention and providing a platform for Filipino accountants in the US, Canada and the Philippines to get together and exchange ideas on harnessing the power of information and creating diversified and global innovation, which is the theme of this year's convention.

In her welcome remarks, NCPACA's 2018-2019 President, Ms. Marina R. Buenaventura, reiterated NCPACA's accomplishments for the past 30 years, which included opportunities for its members to keep up with the growing trends and best practices on accounting and finance industry through professional development workshops.

NCPACA is a non-profit organization of Filipino-American and Filipino-Canadian accounting professionals. It was established in 1984 in San Francisco to provide a platform to foster the development of professional accountants living in the United States and Canada. END.
