

LA PCG Attends the Confirmation and Reception for the Newly - Appointed Filipino-American Commissioner for Los Angeles City Board of Public Works, Jessica Caloza

19 March 2019, Los Angeles – LA PCG joined the Filipino-American community in Los Angeles in a strong show of support during the confirmation hearing and reception of the newly-appointed Commissioner of the Los Angeles Board of Public Works Jessica Caloza, the first Filipina to be appointed to the position.

During the reception, Mayor Eric Garcetti expressed his full confidence in Commissioner Caloza as she brings in to the Board a wealth of experience in the government service.

Consul General Cruz noted the significance of Commissioner Caloza's confirmation taking place during National Women's Month. The delegation who attended the event with the Consul General was composed of female consulate officers and staff.
