

LA PCG Hosts a Dinner to Celebrate the Appointment of a Filipino-American to the Committee on Investment of the City of Montebello

(left to right) Consul General Adelio Cruz conferred a Plaque of Commendation upon Atty. Abraham Lim. Next to him are his wife, Annie Cuevas-Lim; spouse of Consul General Cruz, Catherine Cruz; and City of Montebello Councilmember Angie M. Jimenez.

29 May 2019, City of Arcadia – Consul General Adelio Angelito Cruz hosted a dinner at his residence in honor of Atty. Abraham Lim, a Filipino-American, who was recently confirmed as member of the Investment Committee of the City of Montebello.

In a short program, Consul General Cruz lauded the significant contributions of Atty. Lim, as an active Fil Com leader, in fostering goodwill among Fil-Ams in Southern California and in promoting Filipino culture through collaborative projects with the Consulate General and other Filipino community organizations.

City of Montebello Councilmember Angie M. Jimenez, who nominated Atty. Lim to the position, expressed confidence that Atty. Lim will fulfill his duties to the best of his abilities and serve the community with utmost integrity.

In response, Atty. Lim conveyed his gratitude to Consul General Cruz for hosting the dinner celebration and to Councilmember Jimenez for the faith she placed in him. He also expressed his commitment to serve the City of Montebello and its people with dedication.

The event was attended by about 80 guests from various Filipino-American local officials from Southern California and Fil-com leaders.

(Left to right) Chef Coco Cruz described the exotic dinner she prepared for the occasion. The guests get their food at the buffet table.

The guests enjoyed Filipino fusion cuisine prepared by a Fil-Am Chef Coco Cruz, known as the first “fuzion exotic” chef in the world. END.