

U.S. IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT HOSTS CONSULATE APPRECIATION LUNCHEON

16 July 2019 – The Philippine Consulate General, represented by Ms. Judelyn M. Cuaresma, Assistance-to-Nationals Officer and Ms. Maria Dolores C. Sales, Cultural Officer, as well as representatives from the Philippine Honorary Consulate in San Diego, Mr. Marjon Lorenzo L. Saulon and Ms. Lorena Dominguez, attended the Consulate Appreciation Luncheon hosted by the CoreCivic, in conjunction with the Immigration and Customs Enforcement and Removal Operations (ICE/ERO) at the Otay Mesa Detention Center in San Diego, California.

Also in attendance were various members of the Consular Corps in Los Angeles, including Argentina, Australia, Ecuador, El Salvador, France, Guatemala, Mexico, Pakistan, Spain, Taiwan and United Kingdom. A tour of the detention facility followed after the luncheon.

After the tour, PCG representatives were allowed to conduct a jail visit to all Filipinos currently detained at said detention facility. PCG representatives met and spoke to all the incarcerated Filipinos to ensure that they are in good condition, as well as to extend appropriate assistance to them. END.
