

LA PCG Supports the Opening of the Mabuhay Credit Union

11 June 2019, City of Carson – Consul General Adelio Angelito Cruz and Deputy Consul General Ambrosio Brian Enciso III joined the Filipino community in the City of Carson in the formal opening and ribbon-cutting ceremony of the Mabuhay Credit Union (MCU).

During his remarks, Consul General Cruz commended the MCU's Advisory Council for their efforts to put up a credit union aiming to provide financial assistance to the Filipino community in Southern California. (Photo right)

(Above photos, left to right) Consul General Cruz (fourth from the left) poses with the city officials from various cities of South California. The Filipino-American Chamber of Commerce of Southbay Los Angeles Area and the Carson Chamber of Commerce led the ribbon-cutting ceremony.

MCU is the first credit union run by Filipinos for Filipinos and the entire community. It is the first of its kind in California. END.