

LA PCG Joins the Boholanos in their 18th Biennial Convention of the Confederation of Boholanos in the U.S.A. and Canada

Deputy Consul General Ambrosio Brian F. Enciso III delivers his remark during the Gala Night of the 18th Biennial Convention of the Confederation of Boholanos in the U.S.A. and Canada, held at the Knotts Berry Farm Hotel on 19 July 2019.

Los Angeles, 28 July 2019 – Deputy Consul General Ambrosio Brian F. Enciso III was the guest of honor during the Gala Night of the 18th Biennial Convention of the Confederation of Boholanos in the U.S.A. and Canada, held at the Knotts Berry Farm Hotel, Buena Park, CA on 19 July 2019.

In his remarks, the Deputy Consul General Enciso commended the Confederation for providing a platform for the different Boholano organizations in the United States and Canada to get together to celebrate Boholano heritage, plan for the organization's future, including helping their less privileged kababayans in the province of Bohol. He encouraged the organization's members and officers to be mindful of involving the Filipino-American youth in their programs and activities to ensure the future of CONBUSAC.

CONBUSAC is the umbrella organization of different member Boholano Organizations in North America. The CONBUSAC Convention, which is the biggest gathering of Boholano organizations in North America, was established in 1987 in Los Angeles, California and is held thereafter every two years in different hosting cities in the United States and Canada.
