

LA PCG Joins FilCom in Celebrating the Success of a Multi-awarded Fil-Am Chef

(Photo Left) Chef Ross Pangilinan thanks the guests for attending his victory reception (Photo right) Deputy Consul General Ambrosio Brian F. Enciso III (rightmost) with Chef Ross Pangilinan (leftmost) and his mother Annie (center).

Los Angeles, California –The Philippine Consulate General joined the Filipino-American community in celebrating the success of Fil-Am Chef Ross Pangilinan who has garnered several recognitions in the realm of culinary arts as follows:

- Orange County’s 19, Hottest Restaurants 2019 (Easter LA);
- Chef of the Year 2019 (Orange County and Business Journal);
- Bib Gourmand List (Michelin 2019);
- Best New Restaurants 2019 (Orange Coast Magazine);
- 10 Most Exciting New Restaurants 2019 (Modern Luxury Orange County)

South Coast Plaza, one of largest shopping malls in the West Coast, hosted a reception to honor Chef Pangilinan on 22 August 2019 at Terrace by Mix Mix, the Chef’s newly opened restaurant in South Coast Plaza. Deputy Consul General Ambrosio Brian F. Enciso III attended the event to personally congratulate the rising star.

Chef Ross is known for his innovative fusion dishes, undauntedly combining Filipino and European palates. He opened Mix Mix Kitchen Bar in Santa Ana, California and Terrace by Mix Mix at South Coast Plaza, Costa Mesa, California. END.