

PhilConGen and Phil Trade Investment Center Participate in the US-China 2nd Agriculture Food Trade Forum

(1st Photo) Imperial County District 5 Supervisor, Raymond Castillo; Consul of the Philippine Consulate General (PCG) in Los Angeles, Rea Oreta; Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA) Assistant, Ling Sieu; and Information Officer of PCG in LA, Mary Grace 'Joss' Leaño during the reception on the occasion of MBDA's 50th Anniversary. (2nd Photo) Consul Oreta conveyed the Consulate General's felicitations to MBDA Director Daniel Sieu.

(Clockwise, 3rd Photo) In a panel discussion, Los Angeles Port Trade Development Manager, Norman Arikawa discussed the trade trends in the Port of L.A. (4th Photo) President of the California Poultry Federation delivered a talk entitled, "California Poultry Meat Industries and Exporting." (5th Photo) Representatives of PCG and Philippine Trade Investment Center (PTIC) in Los Angeles at the Philippine table displaying informational materials on how to invest in the Philippines.