

U.S. Army Reservists Briefed on PHL at Sentro Rizal Los Angeles

Deputy Consul General Ambrosio Brian F. Enciso delivered a briefing about the Philippines to U.S. Army Reservists.

14 January 2020, Los Angeles – Deputy Consul General Ambrosio Brian F. Enciso III delivered a short briefing on the Philippines for the Bravo company of the 425th Civil Affairs Battalion of the United States Army Reservists at the Consulate General’s Conference Room in the afternoon of 10 January 2019. The company was led by Filipino-Americans Capt. Rolando Reyes and Sgt. 1st Class Walter Talens.

The Deputy Consul General’s discussion revolved around the Philippine history, culture, tourism, politics and economy. He capped off his lecture with a “Build, Build, Build” video, featuring the ongoing infrastructure development program of the Duterte Administration.

Prior to the lecture, the company called on the Deputy Consul General Enciso III at the Consulate General’s Sentro Rizal, which houses Philippine symbols, arts, books, magazines and the like.

The conduct of said lecture was in line with the Sentro Rizal’s goal to promote the country’s culture and language throughout the world pursuant to Section 42 of Republic Act 10066 known as the National Cultural Heritage Act of 2009. END.
