Acosta, and Filipino Parish priests namely, Rev. Fr. Joseph Pilotin and Rev. Fr. Elmer Empinado after the Holy Mass at St. Lorenzo Ruiz Parish in Walnut, CA on 24 November 2019.

(Photo right) Prior to the conclusion of the Holy Mass, CFO Chairperson Acosta addressed the Filipino-American community at the St. Lorenzo Parish in Walnut, CA. He shared the President's vision for Filipinos, that is, they will travel abroad not to work but for leisure purposes. He also mentioned the CFO's Ugnayan Program, which aims to reach out to permanent migrants to reconnect to their roots and strengthen ties with the Motherland.
