Los Angeles, 15 February 2020 – In preparation for Ballet Philippines' (BP) 50th Anniversary Concert Tour in Southern California, Consul General Adelio Angelito S. Cruz held a meeting with Ms. Margarita Moran Floirendo, Chair of the Cultural Center of the Philippines and former President of BP; Mr. J. Ted I. Benito, Executive Producer of BP's shows in California; and Ms. Rebecca Godinez-Miranda, BP's Host Committee Chair in Los Angeles, on 13 February 2020. Also present during the meeting was Tourism Attaché, Mr. Richmond Patrick L. Jimenez.

The group is slated to perform at the Redondo Beach Performing Arts Center and at the Spreckles Theatre (San Diego) on 03 and 07 October 2020, respectively. Please watch out for further announcements regarding tickets prices and ticket sales.

BP's 50th Anniversary U.S. Concert Tour is expected to give more color to the Filipino-American History Month celebrations in October and further enhance the country's image and standing in the international community with its world-class and eclectic repertoire. END.
