ANNOUNCEMENT

CoViD-19 eBooks and Videos for Children

13 May 2020, Los Angeles – The Sentro Rizal at the Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles is pleased to furnish the Filipino-American Community with a list of eBooks and videos for children on the topic of CoViD-19, compiled by the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) from various Filipino and international sources.

The books, which are available in multiple languages, including Filipino and English, contain age-appropriate material to enable children gain a better understanding of the pandemic and, hopefully contribute even a little to their individual coping process.

The Filipino-American community may share these resources with our kababayan and their community networks, with proper credit to the publishers. Also indicated are the creators' contact details should you be interested in using these materials in any future community activities.
