12 November 2020 – In celebration of the Month of Overseas Filipinos and International Migrants Day in December 2020, the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA), through Sentro Rizal, is holding a photo essay competition based on this year's theme: "Pagpupugay sa Migranteng Filipino Tungo sa Pagbangon Mula sa Pandemya."

The photo essay competition dubbed ANINAG provides a platform for Overseas Filipinos (OFs) to showcase their skills in photography and storytelling.

A photo essay combines these two elements in a series of images that convey ideas or tell a story. In accordance with the theme, the NCCA is looking for photo essays that capture stories of OFs in light of the CoViD-19 pandemic that has greatly affected the world in 2020.

The competition is free and open to all members of Filipino communities overseas, Filipino migrants and their children, 15 years old and above.

Competition mechanics, registration form and other relevant information are available through the link: <https://bit.ly/aninagphotoessay>. Questions and inquiries may be sent to sentro_rizal@ncca.gov.ph.
