ANNOUNCEMENT

Discover a Gem Tucked Away in Mindanao in #FiestaFilipinas' Lami-Lamihan Festival

22 June 2021, Los Angeles – The Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles is pleased to invite the Filipino-American community to watch the airing of the final episode of #FiestaFilipinas, featuring Mindanao's Lami-Lamihan Festival.

Discover a gem tucked away in the southern part of the Philippines—Mindanao, as the Department of Foreign Affairs takes you on a journey to the cities of Zamboanga and Basilan, where you can marvel at the intricately-woven Yakan cloth, traditional indigenous music, and the peaceful sceneries of the Lami-Lamihan Festival!

The Lami-Lamihan Festival of Lamitan, Basilan is a celebration of the rich culture of the Yakan tribe, and promotes cultural harmony among the people from the Yakan, Tausug, Muslim, and Christian communities in the area.

Enjoy this Fiesta Filipinas event by tuning in on Friday, 25 June 2021 at 7:00 p.m. (PDT) at the Department of Foreign Affairs' (DFA) official Facebook Page and YouTube Channel:

<https://www.facebook.com/dfaphl>
